extremely huge major political earth changing events that happened recently or to come >travel bans to major countries where elite would flee to >national emergency declared which leads to martial law and arrest of deep state actors >hillary files appeal to TRY to stop court order that she must testify about emails >TRUMP MAKES MARCH 15TH NATIONAL PRAYER DAY >congress on break from the 14th to the 22nd >schools and many major businesses already temporarily shut down for the next month >entertainment shut down for the foreseeable future leaving plenty of time for people to get caught up on current events >national guard being activated across the country with major cities already being locked down >30k US troops deployed to Europe for an "exercise" starting the 15th >trump making moves against the IRS and FED, while installing those who wish to return to the gold standard >harvested adrenochrome is manufactured in Wuhan, supply now shut down, possibility it was infected with COVID-19 >adrenochrome, the shape of the molecular compound found to resemble a white rabbit (follow the owl & Y head(rabbit)) >massive number of stars/idols speak and move about after getting sick (coincidence) >bill gates resigns along with thousands of other CEOs over the last months these are major happenings looking stormy outside

Trump also just said
>The coming weeks we will all have to make changes and sacrifices...but the short term sacrifices will produce long-term gain...

>Why do you think Trump is revamping the trade deals, using tariffs, cutting taxes to bring back jobs and manufacturing into the country, stimulating the economy, and nominating gold advocates to the federal reserve board? He's attempting to mitigate the inevitable crash and failure of the fiat system. He is preparing to flip from oil to metals, and restructure the federal reserve and fold it into the gov't where it belongs according the Constitution. It will probably happen in his second term.

>Did you see who's portrait Trump chose to have hanging right behind him in the oval office? Andrew Jackson, the man who repealed the Fed's predecessor, the Second Bank of the United States.

it's what the elite used as a drug the way they got it was through torturing children before ritually killing them this was done to produce blackmail on people who wished to seek power once trump got into office the supply lines for these began to be cut off they had to find a source of it or face withdrawals when you're rich and powerful you don't just ween off you find a new source the new source happened to come from wuhan which happened to be the lab funded by soros and bill gates which also happened to be where corona virus broke out here's proof and more if you have the attention span https://archive.is/EXo19

it's a ritual
it's to get blackmail
it's to find those who are willing to do unsung acts in order to gain power this allows them to operate behind the scenes without ever putting themselves in the public eye think CEOs getting arrested for what the investors made him do while the investors keep making money

The question is how much more dangerous is it than other virus epidemics we've seen over the years? How many of the reported cases and deaths are false positives from faulty test kits?
And it's already been reported that there's 2 strains and that it's mutating rapidly. Some here think there's a mild public strain that infects the general public, intentionally released by deepstate to put everyone into panic, and maybe the second strain was released to counter that and target adrenochrome users only?
There's certainly something going around, but how much of the pandemic is really a result of the virus, and how much of this crisis is a cover for other operations?
The hospitals being overwhelmed makes sense if every person who gets sick and shows some of the very generic symptoms (fever, cough, potential breathing issues) are all rushing to the hospital at the same time seeking treatment due to the panic.
The scariest things about this virus right now are the lack of information about it and the governments' reaction to it. When people see the whole world shutting down and are told to be scared of it, a lot of people that wouldn't otherwise seek medical attention for flu-like symptoms are now panicking and going to get tested.

Believe it or not schizovirus might be what they want us to catch. Adrenochrome is hugely prevalent in schizophrenic people, why? because most of them are deeply tortured perhaps some of the most tortured people on earth. It gives them maximum highs what we need to do is stay calm and have faith don't fuel the paranoia.

you're mentally ill or clinically retarded please seek help adrenochrome can be synthesized by basically any chem lab, its not very complex and because of that, there is no way to "cut off the supply" furthermore, there would be no reason to >torture kids
for it, because again, it can be made, and does JACK SHIT otherwise druggie forums would be crawling with it, retard, its a meme from fear and loathing in las vegas Anyway, because of your projections, I would say you're a danger to society, especially around kids tl;dr Trump revealing himself as a neocon, breaking every promise, and shitting in our mouths was part of an elaborate plan which included the participation of the chinese government and most of the world to engineer a super plague, kill potentially millions, and shatter world economies in order to shut down travel with the goal of arresting the elites. The elites who definitely fly commercial and don't have any other means of moving around the world.

MAGApedes are officially dumber than leftists at this point.

Don't doubt what people are able to come up with to cope with horrible things.

If this is true, this is the most elaborate shit pulled off in all of history. I'm talking, this is some mythical-tier cunning and planning taken by Trump. So essentially, he played the part of an elite puppet only to now do a switcharoo and come in and arrest all of these fuckers in one swoop?

It's too good for me to believe in. I'll say this, there are things about this virus that weirds me out and leads me to believe there is some info about it that is really missing. But I think this whole thing about the virus being a cover to catch the elites is just too much. It's all too perfect.

North Dakota is certified satanic-pedo/child trafficking central, particularly in regards to & centered around an AF base whose name I can't recall at this moment. But nefarious activities in ND were first brought to light by author/investigator Maury Terry in his legendary 1980's work "The Ultimate Evil". Dig.

well if it happens, drops up a copy of the us constitution.

I mean im not always running around on 4chan, just when some weird global shit happens, most of the time you faggots have very good and detailed perspectives that u dont find anywhere else.
But really cant just put aside reason and evidence when time traveling shit pops up.

However if its gonna happen with the defender 2020 which is tomorrow(today here), shit has to be swift. But what im really afraid is that communism might take hold instead of good old laissez faire capitalism.

Not to mention most countries in Europe have armies, is this a collab? i think defender 2020 was around 34k us soldiers. I mean the time invested in this must be insane, which makes it unrealistic.

I stand by what I said. If these people are as powerful and influential as you claim, they could/would get around those issues. Muh plane transponder is not a believable answer. The military does black flights literally all the time. The CIA is still doing them to run drugs. You cannot claim these people are all powerful except for transportational bureaucracy. I'm not buying that's their one weakness, so Trump had to use a plague to stop them. That isn't just crazy, it's fucking stupid.
